

Top Secret

DIRECTORATE OF INTELLIGENCE

Central Intelligence Bulletin

AMERICAN REVIEW
RETURN TO AGENCY ARCHIVES
227487

Top Secret

C 196

8 November 1971

25X1

Approved For Release 2003/05/19 : CIA-RDP79T00975A020400070002-6

Approved For Release 2003/05/19 : CIA-RDP79T00975A020400070002-6

25X1

Approved For Release 2003/05/19 : CIA-RDP79T00975A020400070002-6

25X1

[redacted]
8 November 1971

Central Intelligence Bulletin

CONTENTS

[redacted]

25X1

SOUTH VIETNAM: The government is making little headway in its fight against drugs. (Page 4)

[redacted]

25X1

25X1

Approved For Release 2003/05/19 : CIA-RDP79T00975A020400070002-6

25X1

Approved For Release 2003/05/19 : CIA-RDP79T00975A020400070002-6

Next 2 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2003/05/19 : CIA-RDP79T00975A020400070002-6

SOUTH VIETNAM: The government is making little headway in its fight against drugs in Saigon.

Opium dens in Saigon and Cholon continue to operate, and the number of Vietnamese addicts has increased since the anti-drug campaign last June.

25X1

25X1

[redacted] prices for narcotics have increased sharply in recent months, primarily because of tighter customs controls and the larger sums now required to bribe government officials. Prices are expected to drop soon, however, after the government relaxes its pressures.

One of the main problems for Saigon has been the involvement of many top government officials in narcotics smuggling and sales inside South Vietnam. [redacted]

25X1

25X1

[redacted] blames the program's meager results on high-level footdragging and the government's reluctance to go after officials suspected of protecting drug traffickers. The few drug traders who have been arrested can usually bribe the authorities for a release, or they get light sentences if convicted.

25X1

25X1

[redacted] So long as this continues, the control program is likely to be ineffective in reducing the country's increasing narcotics traffic. [redacted]

25X1

25X1

25X1

Approved For Release 2003/05/19 : CIA-RDP79T00975A020400070002-6

Next 4 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2003/05/19 : CIA-RDP79T00975A020400070002-6

Top Secret

Top Secret